I. Call to Order

The April 5, 2007 Historic District Commission meeting was called to order at 5:35 p.m. by Chairman Eashoo. Roll was taken and a quorum was present.

II. Approval of Minutes

Commissioner Sinclair asked the minutes be revised to reflect that two letters were published in the Flint Journal related to Manning Court, the Flint Journal and Uncommon Sense. Commissioner Heddy made a motion to adopt the meeting minutes, as revised of the February 1, 2007 Historic District Commission. Commissioner Sinclair seconded the motion.

Motion passed.

III. Hearing From the Public

None

IV. Plan Review

Berridge Hotel

Michael Freeman provided the commission of the Berridge Hotel project.

V. New Business

Parliamentarian Gail Knapp, Vice President of the State of Michigan Parliamentarians, provided the commission with education related to Parliamentary Procedure. The parliamentarian stated as long as nothing has been done that can't be undone a decision can be changed and voted on again as long as it was at a later meeting. Commissioner Sinclair asked if Dr. Knapp is available for in service training.

VI. Old Business

Commissioner Sinclair reported on a meeting she and Commissioner Rutherford had with Paul Torres of the Flint Institute of Music. As a result of the report and information provided by Dr. Knapp the Commission agreed to bring back for consideration the matter of the demolition of structures located on Manning Ct.

The meeting adjourned at 7: 00 p.m.
